

Brunch for the Brain.

Join us for cool talks and interact with technology as we serve up cutting-edge computer science.

breakfast BYTES

Fall 2009 menu—Now serving Saturdays from 10 a.m. to noon on the UT campus.

10/17

Start-ups, iPhones and IPOs, oh my! | Assistant Professor William Cook and entrepreneurial UTCS students will discuss the life cycle of a technology start-up and how venture capital works, and lead a hands-on workshop on designing an iPhone application.

11/14

How Machines Learn and Interact | Associate Professor Peter Stone will discuss the concepts of machine learning and multiagent systems, with examples from robot soccer and an autonomous car.

12/05

Flip Bits, Not Burgers: Harnessing Technology for Good | Associate Professor Calvin Lin will show how computer technology, which has been changing the world for years, offers hope for solving some of the world's most pressing problems.

Location: W.C. Hogg Building, Room 1.110

Department of Computer Sciences at The University of Texas at Austin

<http://outreach.cs.utexas.edu>

Sponsored by Microsoft Research, the National Center for Women & Information Technology and the National Science Foundation.