

ConocoPhillips

As an integrated energy company, ConocoPhillips provides challenging work around the globe. Whether your interest lies in infrastructure, application support/development, or blending people and problem-solving skills as a business partner, you will be part of an IT organization focused on service excellence.

Our new hires and interns provide systems and support for the technologies that bring energy to the world. New hires and interns are located primarily in Houston, TX—the fourth most populous city in the nation and Bartlesville, OK.

PERKS AND CULTURE

- Competitive compensation
- Health coverage and wellness program
- 401(k) plan with company match
- Relocation packages
- Performance bonus
- Extensive new hire training program
- Career path with a variety of new jobs and skills
- Active recent graduate community
- Diversity and inclusion program
- Ergonomic work environment
- Community involvement
- Teamwork environment
- Company events and social gatherings

EXAMPLES OF INTERESTING PROJECTS

- Global Network Services - work on projects in a variety of areas including: LAN, WAN, voice, wireless, and security.
- Web Application Services - application support and development using ASP.NET, C#, JavaScript, SQL and HTML/CSS in a team environment. Support a variety of business units: human resources, marketing, upstream engineering, etc.
- Enterprise Application Integration - work on projects to integrate data between various systems and processes. Majority of projects work to allow data flow between applications and SAP. Use of SQL, XML and EDI.
- Internal IT Audit - working with small teams throughout the company to analyze critical business controls and procedures. Learn process control network, and data management and security policies.

CURRENT OPPORTUNITIES:
[WWW.CONOCOPHILLIPS.COM/
CAREERS](http://WWW.CONOCOPHILLIPS.COM/CAREERS)

511 S. Keeler Ave, 51C | Bartlesville, OK 74004

