CS303E Schedule Fall 2025: Dr. Bill Young

This schedule is only approximate; dates may change slightly in the event of extraordinary circumstances. This contains two schedules:

- 1. The topics for each week of the semester; find the actual slides and videos on the class webpage.
- 2. Due dates for weekly assignents, projects, quizzes, etc.

The only in-class meetings are on Fridays; these are optional, but you'll receive a small amount of extra credit for attending. You are required to view the videotaped lectures during the week assigned.
